

The ConRes Commitment to Security and Compliance

Ensuring Your IT Initiatives Adhere to the Strictest Standards

At ConRes, we understand that our customers must comply with various federal regulations, industry certifications and international laws specific to their business.

That's why, as your trusted partner, we make it our business to implement key security and compliance certifications to reduce your risks associated with data management and security.

By working with us, you benefit from the extensive processes and controls we've implemented, and you can rest assured knowing that we continually monitor, update and validate our policies, procedures and infrastructure.

This commitment not only helps safeguard your organization and reduces your own compliancy burden, it means you've selected a trustworthy partner with a customer-first approach.

Our Compliance Posture

We believe that whenever you partner with an organization, their compliance posture should be a serious consideration for you.
